Comments
	Justin deserves a 6 or 7 for stepping in to help others, and for staying in contact with other team members.
	Sam was a great help in the first few weeks, but she's been away this past week and hasn't kept in touch or helped much this past week (this shouldn't be an issue in the future, since she's only away this week).

	Dana did a great job with managing and diving work, as well as checking to make sure we didn't miss any details.
	Sam has participated more, especially when creating the domain and use case models for deliverable 2.
	We all worked equally, and we really have an awesome team.

	All around, not much has changed since Homework 2
	Just based on hours, Gavin, Justin, and I have put in the most However, Dana, Gavin, and Sam have also put in valuable work
	#clamminttroops for the win
